

Šimon Hrubec, hockey goalkeeper (CZE)

He began playing hockey in his home town of Vimperk, where he joined the South Bohemian regional team while playing also in the HC Český Krumlov in the 2006/2007 season. Since 2007 he joined the České Budějovice team, which he left in the 2012/2013 season for the HC Oceláři Třinec team. Here he formed a goalkeeping duo with the Slovakian national team goalkeeper, Peter Hamerlík. Before the breakpoint season he participated in five league matches. He began gathering experience with adult hockey in the first league while playing in the Tábor, Písek, and especially Horácká Slavia Třebíč jerseys. In the 2011/2012 season he became the favourite of the Třinec audience and also received attention of league as well as international teams. Šimon's motto is: "Don't believe all that you see; don't believe all that you hear, and you will become wisdomous." In 2014 it was his debut in the Czech national team. He started the www.30prodomov.cz foundation, which raises funds by selling T-shirts to support children in children's homes. His latest fundraiser supported the Children's Home in Čeladná.
